

North
Lincolnshire
Council
www.northlincs.gov.uk

WHOSE STRIPES?

by Ladybird

Talk about what you can see in the pictures as you share this book with your baby.

The large flaps are an ideal opportunity to play a game of peek-a-boo.

Playing peekaboo with babies.

Peekaboo is a lot of fun for your baby and guaranteed to raise some early smiles.

Did you know that it's great for your baby's development too?

Take a look at how to play peekaboo in the video below:

<https://tinyurl.com/ycy7zrch>

Make the most of little moments together.

Talking and listening to your baby helps build their communication skills from the very start. These 'Little Moments Together' cards are filled with tips and conversation ideas to help you chat to your 0 to 9 month old throughout the day.

<https://tinyurl.com/26c2cnfv>

For ideas to share with your 10 to 24 month old and translated versions of all of these cards, please visit:

<https://tinyurl.com/ycxc7mfx>

Tiger, Tiger Rhyme

*Tiger, tiger orange and black,
he's got stripes upon his back.
He growls and roars,
and has sharp claws.
Tiger, tiger orange and black.*

Make up actions with your little one as you say the rhyme.