

DON'T SAY ELEPHANT!

by Stuart Heritage and Nicola Slater

A bin genie has granted you three wishes! What will you wish for?

Meet Pancakes, Cha Cha, a bin genie and, of course some elephants in this laugh-out-loud story.

Talk together about what you would wish for and what would happen if your wish came true!

Creating a reading routine.

Looking at books can be a fun, relaxed activity to do every day. Build a story time into your routine.

Looking at a book quietly together can let your little one know it's time to wind down.

When this is done at the same time of day, every day, your child will get used to the routine and look forward to reading.

Watch the video to learn how routines give children a sense of order and help them to know what comes next.

*One elephant went out to play,
upon a spider's web one day.
He had such enormous fun,
that he called for another elephant to come.*

Repeat with two, three and four elephants...

*Five elephants went out to play,
upon a spider's web one day.
They had such enormous fun,
